Follow Seyhan Lee, Berkeley Scientific, 2 minute papers on YouTube, Runway ML, Stability AI, Open AI, and NVIDIA to keep up with artistic and technological changes in the field.

Subscribe to the Weekly Generative AI Newsletter by Dreaming Tulpa, which offers a concise and highly recommended overview of this new reality that is developing in front of us at breakneck speed.

Also, LinkedIn has a large generative AI community. I enjoy receiving regular updates from them as well. <https://www.linkedin.com/company/chatgpt-generative-ai/>

I also enjoy reading the Medium blogs of Matt White for advanced technology and Merzmensch for AI art.

My favorite picture-based generative AI creators include Devdef, Jon Finger, Nathan Shipley, Kali Yuga., Bilawal Sidhu, Justin Pinkney, Glenn Marshall, Aalap Davjekar, and Roope Rainisto amongst many others.

For further reading, see my Medium Blog: <https://pinar-seyhan-demirdag.medium.com/>. It is filled with entry and medium technical knowledge articles around the subject with a heavy accent on AI filmmaking and how humans will remain relevant in the age of AI.

I have not read this report; however, several contacts of mine have forwarded it to me, so you may want to consider having a look.
